DESCRIPTION

Charming home full of character and stories from time gone by. Moved to this site in the 1970s, this home was an Inn in a past life, catering to travelers and visitors to Northfield. Now you have the opportunity to bring it new life and make your story sink deep into the woodwork. A large foyer with twin closets welcomes you home. The ballroom-size living room has hardwood floors. The kitchen and dining rooms offer plenty of space to entertain, and there's even a 5x6 pantry. Over 2600 finished square feet plus a sprawling unfinished basement. The smaller bedrooms would make great home offices. Boiler for heat and mini-splits for AC. Five bedrooms on the second floor, plus a large shared in-between closet. Attic access via steps. Walking distance to the Cannon River, restaurants & businesses, parks, historic downtown Northfield, and more to discover. The screened porch offers refuge on the north side of the home. Bring your ingenuity and imagination to make this property your own. Pre-inspection report in supplements. The four fireplaces are currently inoperable.
